A talk and presentation by Joe Minicozzi of Urban3

Joe Minicozzi is the principal of Urban3, a North Carolina consulting firm. Urban3's pioneering work in geo-spatial representation of economic productivity has boosted the understanding of economic potency of urbanism and the value of well-designed cities. Mr. Minicozzi is a sought-after lecturer on city planning issues and his work has been featured in numerous journals. He holds a Master of Architecture and Urban Design from Harvard University.

The City of Medford has partially sponsored this presentation by Joe Minicozzi. The public is invited free of charge.

For more information, please contact the City Planning Department at (541) 774-2380.
