Credit Card and Personal Information Privacy

The City of Medford offers online services as a means to improve accessibility. Such transactions are allowed only under tightly controlled circumstances, where there are appropriate technological and other safeguards in place to protect financial and other sensitive, personally identifiable data.

Under statute, the City is responsible for properly securing communications that are exempt from public disclosure including financial information. Wherever possible, the City does not see or collect financial information. Instead, designated banks and financial institutions route the data, transfer the funds, and confirm payment to both you and the City. Additional measures, including but not limited to encryption, are used to ensure the integrity and security of your financial information.

Photo Usage

Upon occasion, Medford Parks and Recreation staff or contractors may photograph participants in recreation programs and events, or people on or within Parks-managed properties. Photos may be used for illustrative and promotional purposes.

Social Media Disclaimer

The purpose of Medford Parks and Recreation social media outlets are to "push" information about City programs, events and services to the general public and to direct individuals to the City web site for more specific information.

Due to Oregon public records laws and City policy, staff members are not permitted to engage in written dialogue on social media sites. Consequently, the City of Medford reserves the right to remove or discontinue posts, threads or conversations.
