Youth Activity Center

Code of Conduct / Discipline Policy

The Youth Activity Center is a fun, safe, and positive place for boys and girls in grades 4-8 . In order to maintain a positive and safe environment for our participants, the following rules and policies have been adopted.

- All participants must have a completed participation form to attend and sign-in when entering and sign-out when leaving the Youth Activity Center.
- The City of Medford is not responsible for lost or stolen items.
- Rude / Inappropriate language or behavior is prohibited.
- Respect the Recreation Staff and the rules they enforce at all times.
- All equipment must be used properly; damaged equipment will be replaced by the individual who is responsible for the damage.
- There is zero tolerance for stealing, physical violence, or possession of weapons at the Youth Activity Center.

The failure to abide by these rules and policies will result in the subsequent consequences based on the severity of the behavior:

1. Verbal warning from the Recreation Staff.
2. Dismissal from the activity center for the day and the incident will be documented.
3. Suspension for two weeks and a behavior contract, signed by parent and participant.
4. Expulsion from Youth Activity Center activities.

Recreation staff reserves the right to determine consequences based on the gravity of the incident.

By signing below, I understand and agree to abide the fore mentioned rules and policies. If there is an incident, I understand the course of action that Recreation Staff will take in correcting the behavior.
